

1 DELEGATE CLARK: Delegate Grant.

2 DELEGATE GRANT: First of all, I want to say to 3 both Delegate Della and Delegate Smith that I would be 4 delighted to join him in extending this privilege even 5 further, but I certainly feel that we should go this far
6 in any event.

7 The question is not a matter of one man, one vote.
8 It is a question of one man, no vote.

9 By trying to stand on a very, very old and 10 archaic test that a person is only interested in a govern-
11 mental community or community of interest in the one
12 locality in which he may reside is completely false and it
13 ignores the present situation where we have a mobile
14 population.

15 People are interested in many, many communities
16 of interest. No longer does a man live and work and die
17 in one specific location. His residence in a suburb may 18 be many, many miles from where he works and if he is 19 fortunate enough to have a summer residence, that is also 20 located in a much different location.

21 And basically, you get around to a question of
